ential member of the Catholic organ, the Western Herald, of which his brother, Rev. Father Phelan, is editor. Mr. Phelan has held several Catholic offices, and has distinguished himself as an honest, careful legislator while serving two terms in the State Senate and one term in the House of Representatives. He was defeated in the last fall, but was defeated in the election by a small majority. He is about 43 years of age, wears Dunlopian whiskers,

MARSHALL F. McDONALD, assistant Circuit Attorney of St. Louis, appeared at the State Department today and presented the application for the extradition of Maxwell, the murderer of Pedler, from New Zealand. There is a certificate of the appointment of a second agent to serve the warrant. The police board of St.
Louis recommended the appointment of Frank B. O'Neill, of New York, as an additional agent to Detective Tracey, and Mr. O'Neill is recommended for appointment by the Governor of Missouri, but the Circuit Attorney is not satisfied with one agent, and claims that his office was ignored by the Governor, and that the

Both Mr. O'Neill and Mr. McDonald master of Dubuque.The Secretary of the Treasury yesterday $5,000,000 on account of pensions. It is estimated that the total payments on this account for the present month will amount to about $10,000,000.Yesterday Howard Williams, the steward of the White House, and Chief Clerk the cook, received notice of their dismissal. It is probable that Williams, the clair, the present valet of President Cleveland, will be made the new steward.P. H. Kelly and Michael Doran, the

The Charge Against the Enthusiastic Commissioners.
Captain A. P. Cunningham and William Lee, the two men charged with violating the city ordinance by firing a salute within 200 yards of a building in celebrating the re-election of Senator Logan, were called for trial in the Police Court this morning. Captain Cunningham showed a remial status by Commissioner Vest's son and by Colonel Rockwell. He claimed that the salute was not intended as an insult to the President and that it was done in honor of the White House and the city. His story of how he procured the salute was amusing. He made unsuccessful attempts to get a gun from General Lee, the Vice-President, and a number of others. At last he met a friend who said that he could get a cannon fired out in the country, and arriving there he found that the owner had gone to the city. He returned and found him and obtained a cannon that had been mounted on a gunboat, and fired for 20 years. The rest had to be drilled to the touch-hole. In dragging the gun to the grounds of one of his recent landladies, he caused more delay. But he was bound to celebrate, no matter the hour.
Judge Smith said that as no disrespect was meant he would simply fine the accused $5 each and would suspend execution of sentence—a virtual dismissal of the case.Washington Streets Fourth.

Albert R. Leeds of the Stevens Institute of Technology of New York, giving the results of his analysis in 1881 of the drinking water of one of the principal cities in the country. Washington stood fourth.
Commissioner West states that this analysis was made in a glass of water drawn from a public fountain, and that the amount is only 24, which is much better.Mrs. Beale's Funeral.
The funeral of Mrs. Emily F. Beale, the mother of General F. F. Beale took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St.
John's R. C. Church and conveyed those into a largely prosperous and influential Democratic newspaper. Colonel Hutchins has identified himself with numerous local enterprises at Washington and made himself well known to our citizens.Colonel Hutchins has established his political residence in his native State of New Hampshire, where he has an island home of 60 acres in Lake Winnisseeogee, on which he is erecting an elegant summer residence. He is actively identified with the New Hampshire Democracy, and last fall was elected to the present Legisla-which meets in June, and in its delibera-a Washington season, where newspaper men and statesmen often congregate, Col-to the brilliant after-dinner talk of Col-

Colonel Hutchins' native modesty seems to have a restraining effect upon the generally prompt working of his lingual organ, and he is noted for his modest re-

to the touch-hole. In dragging the gun to
bound to celebrate, no matter the hour.
Judge Smith said that as no disrespect
was meant he would simply fine the ac-
ecution of sentence—a virtual dismissal of the case.Washington Streets Fourth.
The Health Officer is in possession of a certificate of Professor of Chemistry Albert R. Leeds of the Stevens Institute
ing water of one of the principal cities
